

Sticky Facts!

1. The Industrial Revolution was in the 1800s.
2. The River Derwent runs through Belper.
3. A river starts with a source and ends with a mouth.
4. The Industrial Revolution was where machines were used to do the work of many people.
5. People live near a river because it is a source of water, can be used for transportation and to provide water for crops.
6. The longest river in the world is the River Nile in Egypt.
7. The longest river in the UK is the River Severn.

Sticky Facts!

1. The Industrial Revolution was in the 1800s.
2. The River Derwent runs through Belper.
3. A river starts with a source and ends with a mouth.
4. The Industrial Revolution was where machines were used to do the work of many people.
5. People live near a river because it is a source of water, can be used for transportation and to provide water for crops.
6. The longest river in the world is the River Nile in Egypt.
7. The longest river in the UK is the River Severn.